Founded in 1941, the University Park Woman's Club is part of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, one of the oldest international women's organizations in the world and dedicated to community improvement through volunteer service. The UPWC organizes several highly anticipated annual events, awards scholarships to area students, and undertakes various volunteer activities in support of the GFWC's work in six main community service program areas.

UPWC membership is open to all women in town and surrounding communities. Women who are committed to volunteer service, life-long learning and community involvement are invited to become members.
