  - a. Ned's draft email: Greetings All, We are fortunate to live in a community where many residents are actively involved in our town. Helping Hands UP's members, the people we serve, have benefited tremendously over the past year thanks to you, our volunteers. Thank you for your continuing support!
We realize requests from our members vary in type and volume throughout the year and as some members leave the town while new members join us. That's why your continued participation is so important.
Want to get more involved? We need help engaging our volunteers to solicit ideas for additional activities and keep volunteers engaged during periods when membership service requests volumes are at a low point in the cycle.
